Arresting officer(s) (15)
certify that on the (16) day of (17) at hrs, the above listed arrested person was arrested in (18) Parish for a violation of R.S. 14:98, R.S. 14:98.1, or a violation of a parish or municipal ordinance prohibiting the operation of a vehicle or watercraft while intoxicated. The arrest was made upon reasonable grounds to believe the offense had been committed by the above listed driver based upon the following:
(19)

Upon coming into personal contact with the arrested person, the following symptoms were detected:

Prior to being instructed to take the test, the named person was read and advised of all the information on the Arrestee's Rights Form, including consequences of submission to the test or refusing it, additional tests available at the person's own expense, and he was under general observation for a minimum of 15 minutes during which the person did not ingest alcohol or alcoholic beverages, and did not regurgitate, vomit, or take anything by mouth.
The named person was served with an Official Notification of Withdrawal of Driving Privileges and a Receipt for License and/or Temporary License to provide the arrested person a means to request a hearing and to inform him that he has not more than fifteen (15) days from the date of arrest to make a hearing request. The person was unable or unwilling to sign rights form unless his signature appears.
This is to certify by signature below that the above information is true and correct to the best of my (our) knowledge, information, and belief.
